CHICAGOFEST
AUGUST 3-12

Mayor Byrne's Summertime Chicago

WHAT IS CHICAGOFEST?

ChicagoFest is a gigantic lakefront music festival. No, not a concert, ChicagoFest is something so grand, it takes a Navy Pier to house it all. It takes 14 separate entertainment areas, filled with 325 acts, to stage it all. It takes 12 hours a day, for 10 full days, to run it all off. And at a daily admission price of just $5 a person, it takes only a small amount of money to afford it all. If this kind of family entertainment sounds good to you, read on. We'll give you all the details on ChicagoFest, a lakefront music festival so big, it will make your head swim.

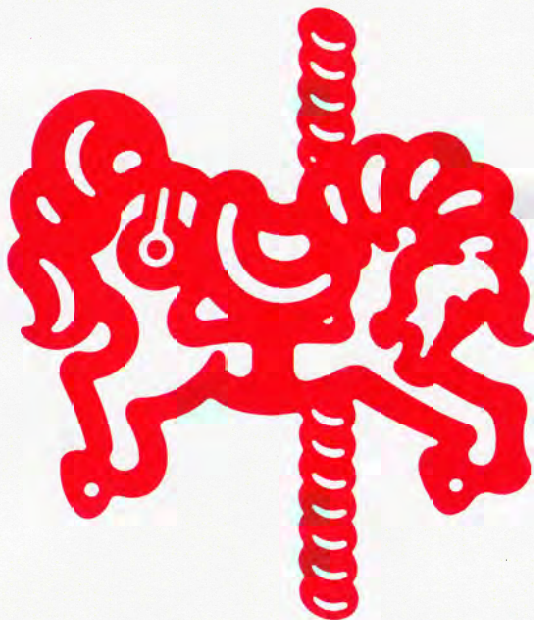

THE MUSIC.

To really do justice to the music at ChicagoFest, the average person should come equipped with no fewer than 7 ears. You need a good ear for rock music to begin with. But you also need an ear for jazz, an ear for country, another for rhythm and blues. Plus ears to catch the big-band sounds, folk music, and, of course, the popular sounds of the million sellers. In all, you'll need an ear for each of seven separate musical stages, including an 18,000 seat main stage, featuring top national recording artists like Helen Reddy, Chicago and Atlanta Rhythm Section. ChicagoFest will bring you the widest variety of musical entertainment possible. And the biggest name stars we can find. All at prices to keep you grinning. From ear to ear.

THE ATTRACTIONS.

There's a lot more to ChicagoFest than meets the ear. Music is only part of what's in store for you. For instance, at our comedy stage you can sit down and listen to a stand-up comedian. You can dance in our disco. Or shop among 100 artists and craftsmen in our crafts centers. You can Rock 'n' Roller Skate. There's even a special children's area where roving clowns, puppet shows and magic acts reign supreme. ChicagoFest is entertainment for every member of your family. We even have a Senior Citizens' Area, a Game Arcade and a Cinema. Just try to be bored here. It's virtually impossible—even if you don't listen to a lick of music. Because we've got dozens of other ways to make your day.

THE FOOD.

ChicagoFest is designed to fill your soul with music. As for your stomach, well, we're prepared to fill that, too. Snack on hamburgers, pizza and gyros sandwiches. Or dine on complete, full-course meals. Over 53 Chicago area restaurants will serve their specialties.

GETTING THERE.

There's simply not any parking available at Navy Pier. Below are listed several alternative plans to get there.

"LOOP" FREE SHUTTLES provided by WLUP/FM 98 Radio:

Soldier Field: $1.00 parking. Free shuttle bus 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. daily except Saturday, August 4th.

Michigan Ave. Underground Garages at Grant Park: Free shuttle bus: weekdays, 5:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.; weekends, 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m.

Erie/St. Clair Parking Garages: At 237 E. Erie (Erie and St. Clair) and at 555 N. St. Clair (Grand and St. Clair). Free shuttle bus weekdays 5:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., weekends 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m.

REGULAR CTA SERVICE: Extra service provided on route #65 Grand Ave. connecting with Michigan Ave. buses and the "L" subway at Grand and Milwaukee and at Grand and State. Also serves the City Garage at 506 N. Rush.

RTA FREE SHUTTLE: Free shuttle bus service to and from Chicago & Northwestern, Union and Rock Island Stations weekdays 5:30 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. The Grant Park "Loop" Free Shuttle will also serve the Illinois Central Randolph Station. Earlier riders use regular bus service. Call 836-7000 in Chicago or suburban toll free 800-972-7000 for travel information.

THE TICKETS.

The gate price is $5 per person. Which means for less than a long-playing record album, you can buy an entire, long-playing music festival. Advance tickets may be purchased for $3.50 per person, the lowest rate available. Tickets are good for any one of the 10 days of the music festival. Each ticket entitles you to a full 12 hours of entertainment—from noon until midnight. Your general admission ticket allows you to visit all 14 entertainment areas at no additional charge. Senior citizens (with ID) pay only $1.00. Children under 11 are admitted free when accompanied by an adult. To order reduced-price advance tickets fill in the coupon and send it with your check for the number of tickets desired, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to:
