CHICAGOFEST.

The most amazing music festival anywhere in America. For 15 days and nights, from noon to midnight, there are 16 separate entertainment areas, each providing a different flavor of enjoyment. The best in rock, jazz, blues, country, ethnic, folk, and comedy, too. An average of 60 different performances each day.

THE MAIN STAGE.

The Main Stage is the 20,000 seat centerpiece of this musical array. Every evening—and many afternoons—the nation's top names in entertainment showcase their talents. Ben Vereen, Alice Cooper, Crystal Gayle, and The Charlie Daniels Band are just a few of the top names appearing on stage. And they're all included at no extra cost in ChicagoFest's low admission charge.

NAVY PIER.

It's beautiful. Chicago's historic Navy Pier juts 40 acres out into Lake Michigan to offer a breathtaking view of Chicago's famous skyline. Even though it's August, the cool lake breeze makes strolling on the promenade like a lake cruise without leaving land.

MORE THAN MUSIC.

There's a lot more to ChicagoFest than meets the ear. For instance, you can choose among 100 selected craftsmen and artisans while shopping in the Marketplace. There's a game arcade that showcases all the latest in electronic excitement, and a cinema that features the best in musical film classics. You can dance to the latest rhythms, or relax at the Cabaret, see your favorite radio and TV personalities broadcasting live, go roller skating, thrill to spectacular fireworks each evening or simply enjoy "people watching" along the Pier.

THE FOOD.

ChicagoFest is a food festival too, offering delights from around the world at reasonable prices, from Chicago's most unique restaurants.
