GETTING THERE

AAA-Chicago Motor Club has provided the following directions to ChicagoFest at Soldier Field:

LAKE SHORE DRIVE (U.S. 41)

From either the north or south side, Lake Shore Drive leads directly to Soldier Field.

DAN RYAN (I-90 and I-94)

Take the Lake Shore Drive exit (via I-55) from either north or south Dan Ryan and travel north on Lake Shore Drive to the designated parking facilities.

STEVENSON (I-55)

Simply drive northeast on the Stevenson until it terminates at Lake Shore Drive and proceed north to the Fest.

EISENHOWER (I-290)

Travel east on the Eisenhower until it becomes Congress Parkway and continue to Michigan Avenue, Columbus Drive or Lake Shore Drive. Proceed to ChicagoFest parking.

KENNEDY (I-90 and I-94)

Use the ramp from the southeast Kennedy to the Eisenhower east for Downtown and continue onto Congress Parkway and proceed to designated parking areas.

CTA AND COMMUTER RAILROAD

Soldier Field is served on a limited basis by four CTA bus routes. The Number 126-Jackson Route intersects Union Station and all Rapid Transit lines along Adams (east) and Jackson (west). Limited hour service to ChicagoFest is available on Number 6-Jeffery Express, Number 11-Lincoln and Number 14-South Lake Shore Express. For additional public transportation information, telephone the RTA Travel Information Center toll free at 1-800-972-7000, in Chicago at 836-7000.

ChicagoFest routing, traffic and parking information is provided by AAA-Chicago Motor Club.

AMERICA'S BEST MUSIC FEST

ChicagoFest will be even better this year at Soldier Field. The festival's new home has more seats, more comforts and more parking. It has been completely renovated.

- The Main Stage has permanent chair seats for 45,000, plus additional room for thousands on the field itself.
- The Stadium has abundant restrooms and washrooms, — inside and cool, permanent and private; more than any previous ChicagoFest.
- There are thousands of parking spots right at Soldier Field for only $2 per car; plus abundant parking (higher rates may apply) at Grant Park, Michigan Ave., Loop area, McCormick Inn and other business lots.
- Easy access by car or public transportation.
