LETTERS to LOOPS

DEAR LOOPS: Just have to tell you that I love your new comic book! I love it! I love it! I love it! The comics, the Rock Quiz, the Rock Portrait, Loop Profile — everything! I love it! How do I make sure I don't miss a single issue?
Cindy Carouso, La Grange

DEAR CINDY: Send $9.98 to Loops Subscription, c/o WLUP, 875 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago 60611 and enjoy LOOPS delivered to your home every month for a year.

DEAR LOOPS: I'm in love with Steve Dahl. I know, I know — all my friends say he's too weird. But I really love him. I mean, he's so cute and funny and pudgy and all. Irma, my best girlfriend, says he's married. It's not true. Is it? Tell me it's not true.

Gloria Vance, Oak Lawn

DEAR GLORIA: Yes, Gloria, it's true. Steve Dahl is married. And yes, he is also weird, cute and pudgy.

DEAR LOOPS: You blew it! In your NEXT MONTH column in the July issue of LOOPS — you spelled Bruce Springsteen "SpringstEEn" instead of "SpringstEEn". How could you make such a stupid mistake?

BR, Chicago

DEAR BR: Aw, mom, how many times do I have to tell you — stop bugging me at the comic book! Geez!

DEAR LOOPS: I think LOOPS is the cleverest thing to come along in years! I love the satire! Ronald Ray Gun, Jimmy Carter, Juanita Brian — how do you guys think that stuff up?

Florence Floyd, Chicago

DEAR FLORENCE: We don't think that stuff up. All the people you mentioned are on our staff.

DEAR LOOPS: I just can't get enough of the incredible Lorelei. When's the next time she'll do something for The Loop?

David Kelter, Skokie

DEAR DAVID: Besides regularly gracing the pages of LOOPS, Lorelei will soon appear on over 200 Loop billboards all over the Chicago area.

DEAR LOOPS: How do I become a rock and roll star?

Bobby DeLorenzo, Des Plaines

DEAR BOBBY: Practice. Practice. Practice.

DEAR LOOPS: All we gotta say is The Loop — WLUP — FM98 — it's the greatest rock and roll station around in the whole world! On the whole planet! The total universe! It's the greatest.

The Night-Riders: Donny Jacoby, Kenny Gerson, Phil Randall, Bob Shavers, Henry "Mauler" Rudolph, Sal Visconti, Micky Franks — Evanston

DEAR NIGHT-RIDERS: Anything you say, fellas.

DEAR LOOPS: Settle an argument for me. My boyfriend says The Beatles hold the record for the most million-selling albums, and I say it's the Stones. Who's right?

Mary Calabrese, Westchester

DEAR MARY: It's a tie — and you both lose. According to our crack research staff, Elvis Presley tops the list with 21 million-selling albums. The Beatles and Stones are tied with 20. By the way, Andy Williams has 17, Bob Dylan has 15, Sinatra and Streisand 14, Herb Alpert 13, and The Beach Boys, Dean Martin, and Three Dog Night all have 12 million-sellers.

DEAR LOOPS: Hey, what's with Blondie and Deborah Harry anyway? I hear she's going to act in some TV commercials and model for magazines, and that the band is breaking up. What gives?

Ralph Jackson, Chicago

DEAR RALPH: It's true — part of it. Blondie's Debby Harry will be doing commercials and ads for a new line of jeans and a perfume company (neither of which we will plug here). The rumors of the band's breakup are, at the time of this printing, still unconfirmed.

LOOP PROFILE

MITCH MICHAELS is WLUP's 2 to 6 pm jock. Born March 20th, 1948 in Cleveland, Ohio -- Mitch's father was an executive for the American Greeting Card Corporation, his mother was a housewife. Mitch is an only child. Mitch majored in radio at Kent State University where he was the first reporter on the scene after National Guard troops had opened fire on protesting students. Divorced, he is the father of a 12 year old daughter and 9 year old son. His steady mate of 4½ years, Chrissie, is a well-known Chicago graphics designer.

LOOPS You're the father of two children. What are they all about?

MITCH Oh, man, they're incredible. Rock and rollers from the day one. They've been to every rock and roll show you can imagine. The Stones -- Day In The Park -- a couple of years ago at Soldiers Field. I was the MC for the show, and I go back looking for my kids, they're 10 and 7, and one of them's serving food on the food line and one is serving drinks in the cold drink line -- and when I get there, there's my daughter handing Mick Jagger a Coke.

LOOPS What got you into radio?

MITCH Believe it or not, mine is one of those classic stories -- coming home from class one day and I wasn't doing very well. I flipped on the radio and the guy says, "Hey, are you bombed out? Do you hate what you're doing? Did you fail a test?" And I just finished my damned midterm and had failed it. So I called for this rap about radio school. So, I called for the info -- I was married at the time -- and I went to this radio school and went to college and worked at a radio station 40 miles away all at the same time. All day and all night.

LOOPS Have you ever won any awards you're particularly proud of?

MITCH I was nominated for Album Air Personality of The Year by Billboard Magazine in 1977.

LOOPS Do you have a favorite group or album?

MITCH I like music in general. There's a particular emotional response that I get from good rock and roll music, whether it's the Stones or Bob Seger or Supertramp or Styx or the Kinks. It's not necessarily who's playing it. And I don't always go home and just listen to rock and roll music either. I like blues a lot. I like some kinds of jazz. Once in a while it's nice to listen to some classical music. I just like the emotional response I get from any music -- if it's good.

LOOPS Is the Loop your definition of a great rock and roll radio station?

MITCH Yes, absolutely. But there's always room for improvement, no question about it.

LOOPS What would you do to make it better?

MITCH Well, I'd like to see... (At this point, the interview is interrupted by Steve Dahl, who enters speaking in fractured sentences which Mitch cannot comprehend. Steve suddenly leaves.)

MITCH (laughing) See what I mean? I get into the middle of something and then Dahl comes in and screws it up, you know? Where was I?

LOOPS Let's regroup. Who listens to your station? Who is the typical Loop listener?

MITCH The typical Loop listener is 14 or 15 years old -- and a 19 year old college student, a 24 year old construction worker, a 31 year old lawyer, people in bars, on the beach, the park, walking down the street -- it never ceases to amaze me the broad range of ethnic backgrounds, age breakdowns, work profiles -- all listening to the Loop. You know what I love?

LOOPS Uh-uh.

MITCH I love the people who say "Steve Dahl! I can't stand him! I can't! I mean, he makes me sick!" And then they'll quote verbatim 3 minutes of his show from yesterday. "I never listen to him! Never!" Bull they don't listen to him. How'd they quote him for 3 minutes? People say, "Ah, that Sky Daniels -- he's arrogant. He's egotistical. He's into too much new music." Then they'll rattle off 4 songs in a row he played last night.

LOOPS It sounds like you --

MITCH This station has more personality, more talent, has more energy than any station I ever dreamed of working at. It's incredible. It really is.

LOOPS What do you think about the state of rock and roll?

MITCH I think there's got to be some changes in the record industry. Quality's got to come up. They can't pay bands exorbitant sums of money. They've got to cut back a little bit and give the audience more for their money. I think that's shown in the lack of record sales. If they don't learn, they'll fall by the wayside. I don't think rock and roll will ever let that happen. I don't think the audiences will let that happen. They're just demanding more quality these days.

LOOPS Anything you'd like to say to your listeners in closing?

MITCH I really love this city of Chicago. I feel like I grew up here. I came here having worked 3 years in radio and the changes I went through in this town -- getting hired, getting fired, getting hired again, getting fired again... I matured in Chicago. I'm really tied to this city. I love it. I like the people here. I wouldn't give it up for anything.

LOOPS Born and raised in Cleveland --

MITCH -- but now I'm a Chicago boy.

LOOPS Want to know who we're going to profile in the next issue of Loops?

MITCH Who?

LOOPS Steve Dahl.

MITCH Oh, are you in for trouble.
